Mr. Neils Reimers
Office of Vice President for Research
Stanford University
Stanford, Calif. 94305

Dear Mr. Reimers:

Pursuant to an earlier conversation with our office, we are enclosing herewith our check payable to Leland Stanford, Jr. University in the sum of $5,000.00 on the part of GRT Corporation, to be performed under the agreement dated September 24, 1969 and the option agreement dated September 24, 1969. Concurrently and as added consideration for the release and settlement of all obligations between GRT and Leland Stanford University under the aforesaid agreements including any renewals, modifications or extensions thereof, GRT hereby assigns all of its right, title and interest in the sound source position simulator consisting of a variable speed tape which records for 1/4 inch tape with two track head, single channel electronics and a control box, continuing electronic circuitry and joy stick control and a set of four reverberation units as your sole and separate property, free and clear of any liens or encumbrances.

The foregoing constitutes a full and final release between GRT and Leland Stanford, Jr. University respecting any and all obligations arising under the aforesaid agreements and shall not be deemed an admission of liability on either party's part for any obligations arising thereunder. If you would be kind enough to affix your signature on behalf of Leland Stanford, Jr. University on the left hand corner of this letter and return in the self-addressed envelope, we shall be most appreciative.

Yours very truly,

Bertil D. Nordin
Vice President of Finance
