

October 15, 1991

Professor John M. Chowning
Director, CCRMA
Stanford University
Stanford, CA 94035

Dear professor Chowning,

Thank you very much for your kindness and hospitality extended to us on our recent visit to you. We appreciated the time which you spent with us, and the information which we gained in discussions with you, which gave us valuable hints for our future study.

We were surprised to find out that many people we met in the U.S. pointed out the unlimited possibility which sound or music has. The interface between man and articles is the key factor for wellness surroundings. We were interested in your study at CCRMA aiming at establishing ideal relationship among man, music and computer.

We hope that our visit marked the starting point of our cooperative relationship between you and us for our common goal, and we would like to continue cultivating our relationship.

It was also our great pleasure that we had an opportunity to meet you and other members of CCRMA whose generous and sincere personalities impressed us all very much. We thank you for giving us such a wonderful opportunity.

We wish you and all staffs of CCRMA good health and continued success.

Most sincerely,

S. Takahashi
Yukinori Usuda
N. Sakashita

Shigeo Takahashi
Yukinori Usuda
Noriyuki Sakashita
YAMAHA CORPORATION
Product Development
Furniture & Home Products