1. Write the letter name and solfege syllable underneath each pitch; also circle the highest and lowest pitch in the set.

2. Notate two octaves for each named pitch name given underneath the staff; use ledger lines where necessary.

3. Write the letter name and the name of an enharmonic equivalent under each pitch.

4. Write the letter name underneath each pitch, observing the different key signatures.