"I miss home. I wonder what's the weather like"

"Woah! The Polar Vortex? What's that?"

"What does it feel like to be in a hurricane? A tornado?"
"I'm feeling like a yellow umbrella in a crowd of black ones today"

"Where are you from? Canada? Wow! What are winters like there?"

"I wanna send Gabby some sunshine"
A personal floating umbrella that follows you anywhere you go. You can customize it anyway you like!

Weather is such a big part of our daily lives and it can affect our expressions, decisions, and how we connect with the Earth and others!

You are able to change the settings in the "umbrella" to any climate or weather you want. Rain or shine!
